

Contents

	Page
LIST OF CONTRIBUTORS.....	23
EDITORIAL BOARD.....	25
SCIENTIFIC COMMITTEE	27
INTRODUCTION. STRATEGY, PEOPLE, AND TECHNOLOGY: HOW DO BUSINESSES RESPOND TO CHALLENGING TIMES?.. MARGARITA NÚÑEZ CANAL, MARIA DE LAS MERCEDES DE OBESSO ..	29

SECTION I

STRATEGY — NAVIGATING UNCERTAINTY AND BUILDING COMPETITIVE ADVANTAGE

CHAPTER 1

GOVERNANCE STRUCTURES FOR LONG-TERM DIGITAL TRANSFORMATION: AN AGENT-BASED SIMULATION APPROACH

HRISHIKESH DESAI.....	35
1. Introduction	36
2. Theory	37
2.1. Governance structures	37
2.2. Strategic Management Perspective on Governance	38
2.3. Human-Centered and Ethical Dimensions of Governance	38
3. Analytical Model	39

	Page
3.1. Overview of ABM	39
3.2. Agent Attributes and Behaviors	40
3.2.1. Capabilities	40
3.2.2. Incentives	41
3.2.3. Decision Rules	41
3.3. Equilibrium Analysis and Results	45
4. Numerical Experiment	49
5. Limitations	52
6. Conclusion	52
References	54

CHAPTER 2

CULTURAL NARRATIVES AND THE LIMITS OF EUROPEAN UNION GREENWASHING POLICIES

ARANCHA LARRAÑAGA MUGUERZA, CARMEN VALOR MARTÍNEZ	59
1. Introduction	60
2. Conceptual background	61
3. Method	62
4. Results	63
4.1. The technological imperative	63
4.1.1. Cultural model of producers (BE)	63
4.1.2. Cultural model of process (DO)	64
4.2. The emotive connection	64
4.2.1. Cultural model of producers (BE)	64
4.2.2. Cultural model of process (DO)	65
5. Discussion	65
5.1. Theoretical contributions	67
5.2. Managerial implications	68

CONTENTS

	Page
5.3. Limitations	69
5.4. Future research lines	70
6. Conclusion	70
References	71

CHAPTER 3

THE IMPACT OF POPULISM ON BUSINESS STRATEGY: CHARACTERISTICS, AREAS OF IMPACT, AND PROTECTION MEASURES

ALFREDO JIMÉNEZ, SECIL BAYRAKTAR, SEONG-JIN CHOI, YU MAN XIONG 77

1. Introduction	78
2. Characteristics of populism	79
3. Business areas affected by populism	82
3.1. Populism and internationalization	82
3.2. Populism and innovation	83
3.3. Populism and entrepreneurship	84
3.4. Populism and corporate social responsibility	85
4. Measures to minimize the impact of populism	85
5. Conclusion	86
References	87

CHAPTER 4

EMBEDDING ESG INTO CORE STRATEGY: LESSONS FROM TOP-PERFORMING MULTINATIONALS IN SPAIN AND ITALY

MAR PERONA ALFAGEME, IGNACIO URRUTIA, DANIELE GASBARRO 93

1. Introduction	94
----------------------------------	-----------

	Page
2. ESG as a Strategic Catalyst for value creation: Enhancing financial Performance, Attracting Talent, and building Corporate Reputation	95
2.1. ESG and financial performance	95
2.2. ESG at the heart of corporate reputation	97
2.2.1. Financial Markets	98
2.2.2. Consumer Markets	98
2.2.3. Society	99
2.3. Integrating ESG into strategic talent management	99
3. ESG in Practice: Case Studies of Leading Spanish and Italian Multinationals	101
3.1. Italy's Top ESG Performers	102
3.1.1. Snam (ESG Score: 95/100) – Leading the Energy Transition	102
3.1.2. Leonardo (ESG Score: 88/100) – Sustainability in Aerospace and Defense	102
3.1.3. Enel (ESG Score: 87/100) – A Global Leader in Renewable Energy	103
3.2. Spain's Top ESG Performers	103
3.2.1. Acerinox (ESG Score: 90/100) – Sustainability in Stainless Steel Manufacturing	103
3.2.2. Acciona (ESG Score: 89/100) – A Leader in Sustainable Infrastructure	104
3.2.3. Banco Santander (ESG Score: 86/100) – Sustainable Finance and Inclusion	104
4. Strategic Integration of ESG: Key Pathways, Outcomes, and Trade-Offs	105
4.1. Enhancing Financial Performance through ESG Integration ..	105
4.2. Building Reputational Capital across Financial, Consumer, and Societal Markets	106
4.3. ESG as a Catalyst for Talent Attraction, Retention, and Engagement	106

CONTENTS

	Page
5. Conclusions	109
References	109

CHAPTER 5

ELEVATING SPORTS INDUSTRY THROUGH TECHNOLOGY, INNOVATION AND DIGITALIZATION

ANA BELÉN PERDIGONES MARTÍNEZ, MANUEL DÍAZ-GAMARRA	115
1. Introduction	116
2. The impact of technology on the sports industry	117
3. The adoption of technology innovation	117
4. Methodology	118
5. Results	126
6. Conclusions	128
References	130

SECTION II

PEOPLE — TALENT, CULTURE, AND SUSTAINABILITY IN A CHANGING WORLD

CHAPTER 6

INTERGENERATIONAL TALENT MANAGEMENT: UPSKILLING AND RESKILLING STRATEGIES TO PROMOTE AGE DIVERSITY IN THE ERA OF NEW LONGEVITY

ANA PILAR FAÑANÁS BIESCAS, BÁRBARA REY ACTIS	135
1. Introduction	136
2. Antecedents	138
2.1. The Emergence of New Longevity: A Global and Spanish Perspective	138
2.2. Demographics of New Longevity focused on Spain	142
2.3. The Labor Market Paradox: Technological Disruption and Age Bias	143

	Page
2.4. Age Diversity as Organizational Imperative	144
2.5. Ageism in the Modern Workplace: A Multidimensional Challenge	145
3. Theoretical and Conceptual Framework for Intergenerational Talent Management	146
3.1. Component Analysis and Relationships	147
3.2. Moderating Factors and Contextual Variables	149
3.3. Strategic Approach to Age Diversity Management	150
3.4. Reverse Mentoring: Bridging Generational Skills Gaps	150
3.5. Implementation of Knowledge Transfer Initiatives	152
3.6. Strategic Benefits for Organizational Development	153
4. Discussion and Conclusions	153
5. References	155

CHAPTER 7

TALENT MANAGEMENT IN A DIVERSE AND MULTICULTURAL WORKFORCE: IMPROVEMENT AND RESKILLING STRATEGIES TO FOSTER EMERGING TECHNOLOGIES

MAITE PALOMO-VADILLO, LORENZO ESCOT, FRANCISCO DONOSO GARCÍA

	163
1. Introduction	164
2. Conceptual Framework of Inbound Marketing	164
2.1. Phases of Inbound Marketing	165
3. From Inbound Marketing to Inbound Talent	166
4. Attract the best talent	166
5. Convert talented individuals	169
6. Development and retention	171
7. Engage and captivate employees	173
8. Conclusions	174
References	175

	Page
 CHAPTER 8
INTEGRATING CSR, SUSTAINABILITY, AND GOOD GOVERNANCE IN UNIVERSITIES: STRATEGIC PATHWAYS TO GLOBAL RECOGNITION AND IMPACT
LUIS DÍAZ-MARCOS, ÓSCAR AGUADO-TEVAR.....	183
1. Introduction	184
2. Corporate Social Responsibility and Sustainability: theories, approaches, and the Role of Universities	185
3. A Conceptual Approach to Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR)	190
4. Theories on CSR	196
5. ESG and Sustainability in the University Sector	198
6. Conclusions	203
References	205
 CHAPTER 9
DOMINANT LOGIC: A POWERFUL CONCEPT OR AN ELUSIVE FACTOR - A SYSTEMATIC LITERATURE REVIEW
JAANA ROSENDAHL, SUVI KONSTI-LAAKSO, TIMO PIHKALA.....	211
1. Introduction	212
2. The Foundations of Dominant Logic	213
2.1. The Origin	213
2.2. Contemporary Critique of Dominant Logic	214
2.3. Literature Reviews on Dominant Logic	215
3. Methodology of the Literature Review	215
3.1. Familiarization	216
3.2. Searching Studies About Dominant Logic in Strategic Renewal	217
3.3. Findings	217
4. Discussion	221
5. Conclusions	224
References	225

CHAPTER 10

LEARNING ORGANIZATIONS IN THE AGE OF ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE

JORGE HERNANDO CUÑADO, JIMMY RUOKOLAINEN	229
1. Introduction	230
2. Theoretical Framework	230
3. Methodology	233
4. Practices of learning organizations	234
4.1. NASA: Learning Through Experience	234
4.2. Toyota: An Adaptive Open System Rooted in Its Native Culture	236
4.3. Supercell: The Impact of Autonomy and Decentralization	238
4.4. Smartly AI: Redefining Learning in the Age of AI	240
5. Comparative analysis	242
6. Conclusion	244
References	245

SECTION III

TECHNOLOGY – INNOVATION, DIGITAL TRANSFORMATION, AND DATA-DRIVEN BUSINESS

CHAPTER 11

ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE AS A FACILITATOR OF SUSTAINABILITY IN AUTONOMOUS AND ELECTRIC VEHICLES: AN ANALYSIS OF CONSUMER BEHAVIOR AND CORPORATE STRATEGY

ALBERTO-TOMÁS DELSO-VICENTE, MARÍA GARCÍA DE BLANES	251
1. Introduction	252
2. Theoretical Framework	254
2.1. From Chrono-Urbanism to Multidimensional Proximity	254
2.2. The Role of AI and Simulation in Mobility Planning	255
2.3. Ethical and Governance Implications	255

	Page
3. Methodology	256
4. Results	257
5. Discussion	260
6. Conclusions and Future Research	265
References	266

CHAPTER 12

TECHNOLOGICAL INNOVATIONS, ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE, AND THEIR IMPACT ON FINANCIAL INCLUSION: FROM DIGITAL TRANSFORMATION TO ECONOMIC EQUITY

OTTO REGALADO-PEZÚA, CESAR JHONNATAN HORNA-SALDAÑA, LUIS MENDIOLA-CONTRERAS

1. Introduction	272
1.1. Conceptual framework: dynamic capabilities, data-driven strategy, and digital transformation	273
2. Technological developments in the financial system: a historical journey towards e-inclusion	275
2.1. Early banking automation (1960-1980): Efficiency without inclusion	276
2.2. Expansion of online banking (1990-2000): a revolution limited by the digital divide	276
2.3. Mobile banking revolution (2000-2010): The real awakening of financial inclusion	276
2.4. The rise of fintech (2010-2015): Disruptive innovation and democratization of financial services	277
2.5. AI and machine learning (2015-2020): Personalization of services and risk optimization	278
2.6. Digital banking consolidation (2020-2025): Expansion accelerated by the pandemic of COVID-19	278
2.7. The future of digital financial inclusion (2025 and beyond): sustainability and social innovation	278

	Page
3. AI in credit assessment: democratisation of access to credit .	279
3.1. Definition of AI in the financial system.	279
3.2. Transformation of traditional credit assessment models	279
3.3. Practical applications of AI in credit assessment.	279
4. Case studies	280
4.1. Personalized financial services.	280
4.2. Impact on Trade Formalisation	281
4.3. Lessons Learned	284
4.3.1. Importance of Interoperability	284
4.3.2. User Education and Trust	284
4.3.3. Personalization of Services through AI	284
4.3.4. Financial Inclusion through Alternative Data	284
4.3.5. Public-Private Partnership.	285
4.3.6. Cultural and Regional Adaptation.	285
4.4. Persistent Inequalities in Financial Inclusion: differences by geographical location and gender.	285
4.4.1. Financial exclusion in rural areas.	285
4.4.2. Gender gaps in access to financial services.	285
4.4.3. Ethical Challenges and Considerations.	286
4.4.3.1. Privacy and data security	286
4.4.3.2. Transparency and Fairness in AI	287
4.5. Strategic Recommendations.	288
4.5.1. Policies and regulations	288
4.5.2. Public-Private Partnerships.	290
5. Conclusions	291
5.1. Progress and unfulfilled promises	291
5.2. The risk of a new financial exclusion	291
5.3. Regulation: the great absentee in the era of financial AI.	292
5.4. Towards real financial inclusion	292
References	293

CHAPTER 13

COMMUNITIES OF PRACTICE AS CATALYSTS FOR DATA-DRIVEN BUSINESS TRANSFORMATION

FRANCISCO J. NAVARRO-MENESES, JUAN V. CALLE-LAMELAS	297
1. Introduction	298
2. The New Imperatives of Data-Driven Transformation	299
2.1. Traditional vs Data-Driven Transformation	300
2.2. Implications of Data-Driven Transformation	301
3. The Role of CoPs in Data-Driven Transformation	301
3.1. CoPs as Enablers of Knowledge Creation and Diffusion	305
3.2. CoPs and Data-Driven Innovation	305
3.3. CoPs as a Response to Ethical and Regulatory Challenges	306
3.4. CoPs and Talent Transformation	307
3.5. CoPs as Strategic Levers	307
4. How CoPs Operate in Data-Driven Environments	308
4.1. How CoPs Get Started	310
4.2. How Knowledge Flows Within CoPs	310
4.3. How CoPs Collaborate and Make Decisions	311
4.4. How CoPs Communicate	311
4.5. How Organizations Support CoPs	312
5. Challenges and Opportunities	312
6. Conclusion	314
References	315

CHAPTER 14

AI-EMPOWERED ESG: UNLOCKING NEW PATHWAYS FOR SUSTAINABILITY

RAÚL VILLAMARÍN RODRÍGUEZ, HEMACHANDRAN K.	319
1. Introduction	320

	Page
2. Literature Review: AI-ESG Integration Framework	321
2.1. Theoretical Foundation: TOE Framework Application	321
2.2. Technological Context: AI Capabilities for ESG	322
2.2.1. Environmental Applications (High Maturity)	322
2.2.2. Social Applications (Medium Maturity)	322
2.2.3. Governance Applications (Emerging Maturity)	323
2.3. Organizational Context: Implementation Barriers and Enablers	323
2.4. Environmental Context: Regulatory and Institutional Pressures	324
2.5. Explainable AI (XAI) in ESG: Critical Success Factor	325
2.6. Research Gaps and Theoretical Contribution	325
2.7. Conceptual Model and Theoretical Framework Integration	326
2.8. Literature Review Synthesis and Research Positioning	327
3. Research Methodology	328
3.1. Research Design and Philosophical Approach	328
3.2. Sampling Strategy and Population	328
3.3. Sampling Method	328
3.4. Sample Size Justification	329
3.5. Data Collection Procedures	329
3.6. Distribution Strategy	329
3.7. Response Collection and Quality Control	329
4. Results and Discussion	334
5. Theoretical Framework Validation and Contributions	349
6. Conclusion: Strategic Framework for AI-ESG Integration	351
6.1. Key Theoretical Contributions	351
6.2. Strategic Recommendations by Stakeholder Group	352
6.2.1. For Corporate Leaders and C-Suite Executives	352
6.2.2. For Technology Professionals and AI Practitioners	353
6.2.3. For ESG and Sustainability Professionals	354

CONTENTS

	Page
6.2.4. For Policymakers and Regulators.....	355
6.3. Industry-Specific Implementation Roadmaps	356
6.3.1. Technology Sector: Innovation Leadership and Market Development	356
6.3.2. Financial Services: Compliance Excellence and Client Value Creation.....	357
6.3.3. Manufacturing: Operational Excellence and Sustainability Integration.....	357
6.3.4. Healthcare: Risk-Managed Innovation and Stakeholder-Centered Implementation.....	358
6.4. Future Research Agenda and Knowledge Development Priorities	359
6.4.1. Immediate Research Priorities (1-2 years).....	359
6.4.2. Medium-term Research Opportunities (2-5 years)	359
6.4.3. Long-term Research Vision (5+ years).....	360
6.5. Limitations and Boundary Conditions	360
6.5.1. Methodological Limitations and Scope Constraints	360
6.5.2. Theoretical Boundary Conditions and Application Scope.....	361
6.5.3. Final Synthesis: The AI-ESG Imperative for Sustainable Future.....	362
References	363

CHAPTER 15

THE USE OF BIG DATA ANALYTICS AND DATA SPACES TO IMPLEMENT ESG STRATEGIES IN MEETING TOURISM

CÉSAR LAPUENTE ÁLVAREZ, SANDRA MONROY-RODRÍGUEZ	367
1. Introduction	368
2. Literature review	369

	Page
3. Methodology	373
3.1. Selection of analytical approach	373
3.2. Case study selection and justification	373
3.3. Definition of Evaluation Criteria	374
3.4. Pairwise comparison and weight assignment	375
3.5. Evaluation Scale for AHP Analysis	376
4. Results	377
4.1. Qualitative Analysis	377
4.2. AHP Analysis	379
5. Conclusions	382
6. Limitations	385
References	385